50. Memoriams

In Memoriam
In loving and respectful memory of Rev. Raymond Q. Lawing, Sr., husband and father, who passed into eternity one year ago on September 21, 1982.
The memory of his loving ways and unequalled earthly kindness still linger with us.
We miss his warm smile and radiance.
However, we are consoled to know that he is with Jesus.
There is a voice from the tomb sweeter than song;
There is a remembrance of the dead, to which we turn even from the charms of the living.
These we would not exchange for the song of pleasure or the bursts of revelry.
The world has become a better place because Rev. Lawing passed this way.
We'll meet in our home over there.
Greatly missed by wife, Mrs. Florence J. Lawing, and children: Leon, Anne, Jackie, Raymond, Jr., Tim and Nita and grandchildren.
50/9-21-1tp

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of our father and grandfather, Norman Claude Turner. (1958-1983).
Just twenty-five years with the Angels.
Just twenty-five years you've been gone.
Twenty-five years ago you never said Goodbye
From this earth you had to go.
Twenty-five years seems like a thousand.
Forget you we could never,
It would be in vein to try.
We will think of you forever,
And love you 'till we die.
Sadly missed by Daughter and Grandchildren.

Local schools rank near top in state

Appomattox County School Division Superintendent Lloyd Walton shared with the Appomattox County School Board at last Wednesday's meeting a print-out of minimum competency test results from the tenth grade of 1982-83. 95.8 percent of the tenth grade students passed both tests. This percentages ranks Appomattox County near the top in comparison with other divisions throughout the state of Virginia.

The superintendent informed the board that at least three students have attempted to enroll in Appomattox schools whose parents live in other divisions or outside the state. Even though someone within Appomattox County may receive legal custody of these children, school attendance is not granted without payment of tuition. This protection for the school division is provided by Code 22.1-3 of the State of Virginia.

Tuition for students to attend school in this division during the current session is $844.46. Parents are required to pay the tuition in ten equal installments, September through June.

Attention was called to the State Accreditation Standards which will become effective July 1, 1984. Students entering the ninth grade during the 1984-85 session will be required to receive 20 credits for a regular diploma and 23 credits for an advanced diploma. All students will have to receive two credits in mathmetics, two credits in a laboratory science and an additional credit in either math or science.

An enrollment report was presented which is approximately the same as the projected enrollment for the current school session.
